

European Underwater Federation

Membership application

Applicants for full membership must comply with the following requirements:

1. Be a recognised by EUF as a recreational diver training and certification body of good standing within the industry.
2. Have a dedicated administrative headquarters based in a country belonging to the EU or CEN (where an organisation has such headquarters in more than one country, they may seek membership for more than one such headquarters).
3. Comply with current ISO standards that apply to their training programme and be certified as such by EUF Certification International.
4. Agree to abide by and respect the rules and ethos of the EUF.
5. Pay the current fee applicable to the relevant class of membership.
6. Accept that EUF reserves the right to refuse any and all applications without disclosure as to reason and that all applications are subject to approval by the relevant class members.
7. If seeking status as a national non-profit distributing body:
 - a. be recognised by their national government.
 - b. be applying to represent a country with no current member in that class.
 - c. accept the responsibility of representing the interests of all divers and diver training organisations within their country not directly belonging to their organisation or represented by another EUF member.
8. Indemnify EUF from all liability that may arise from the membership of the applicant to EUF.
9. Positively promote recreational diving and the EUF and not disparage fellow members of good standing.
10. Supply to EUF relevant membership requirement details.

Applicants for associate membership must comply with the following requirements:

1. If a training organisation, be recognised by EUF as a diver training body of good standing within the industry.
2. Comply with any current CEN/ISO standards that apply to any recreational training programme they may have and be certified as such by EUF Certification International.
3. Agree to abide by and respect the rules and ethos of the EUF.
4. Pay the current fee applicable to the relevant class of membership.
5. Accept that EUF reserves the right to refuse any and all applications without disclosure as to reason and that all applications are subject to approval by the members.
6. Indemnify EUF from all liability that may arise from the membership of the applicant to EUF.
7. Positively promote recreational diving and the EUF and not disparage fellow members of good standing.
8. Supply to EUF any relevant membership requirement details.

European Underwater Federation

Application form

Name of applicant body
Country of operation
HQ address
Phone
Email
Website
Contact name

As authorised signatory for the above-named body I hereby apply for:

<input type="checkbox"/> Full	<input type="checkbox"/> Associate
-------------------------------	------------------------------------

membership of the European Underwater Federation and confirm that we fully accept the conditions applicable to such application and agree to abide by such rules and regulations as may be applicable to such membership.

If applying for category 3a or 3b membership, enclose English language versions of:

- Evidence of at least four years operational existence and at least 100 registered instructors
- Evidence of professional registration/government recognition at HQ address
- Evidence of public liability insurance

Signed:

Position:

Date:.....